A Testimony. . .

I would like to share with you the thoughts and blessings that come to me as I gaze at the beautiful and meaningful backdrop in our auditorium. The white drapes remind me of Jesus Christ—His righteousness and purity. The strong white pillars stand tall and straight to remind me of God's strength, His everlasting love that covers my daily needs. The greenery softens the stark white background and reminds me of God's creative power and in spite of all the wrongs in this world, we still have a beautiful world in which to live. Now, look at the graceful blue netting draped over and around the pillars and note how it softens the harshness of the whole scene.

Look to your right and notice two small crosses—you know who they were for. On the left side is a very large, bold cross—this is the cross that was meant for me because of my sins.

I thank Jesus as I contemplate what He did for me—for you. He chose to die for all my sins. He willingly took my place—I can hardly fathom that kind of love and sacrifice. Observe the crown of thorns now resting on the cross—the cross is now empty and so is His grave. He is alive and lives to intercede for my salvation. He has risen and is my Redeemer, my Father, my Friend. Look at the rest of the platform décor—there is so much more to see and to meditate upon.

I want to thank Cari Tetz for her creative ability to import what we were really here for during these nine days of camp meeting. Truly her backdrop reminds us always in every thing and every way to "Lift Him Up."

Will you help take up the challenge to meet the 2009 total? By God's grace, and your generosity, I believe we can reach or exceed it for 2010. I believe the funds needed to evangelize Alberta are already in the hands of God's people. Pray that the Lord may impress you as to what He wants you to do to hasten the spreading the Good News. Bob Holdal, VP for Finance
