Come to the foyer of the Heritage Church to reserve your time and tear off the slip of paper with the time slot you desire. Since there is only one counselor per time slot, please remember to only tear off the bottom half of the tab and leave the top half for the counselor. You can meet the counselor at the back of the Heritage church at the time you reserved.

FIVE REASONS TO HAVE A LAST WILL & TESTAMENT

- IT'S YOUR PROPERTY — A Will provides direction for the distribution of your assets according to your wishes and provides a certain peace of mind.
- CHILDREN — A Will provides for the care of your minor children, enabling you to choose a guardian. Should both parents die without a Will, the children become wards of the court. The court would then appoint a guardian.
- SPEEDY SETTLEMENT — Without a Will, lengthy court delays could create undue hardship for your family. By providing a blueprint and a list of directions, your family will not have to speculate as to what you would have wanted.
- ESTATE PLANNING — When skilfully drafted by a lawyer, a Will allows you to incorporate tax-saving measures and avoid unnecessary taxes. This will result in increased funds for your beneficiaries.
- LEAVE A LEGACY — A Will assures that you can continue to assist charities after your death.

If you die without a Will, your assets will be distributed according to the Intestate Succession Act for the province of Alberta (intestacy rules for Albertans who die without a Will). There is no flexibility in these rules. Your assets will be distributed through a legislated formula. Shelley Smith, a lawyer with Venture Law in Edmonton and Loney Ziakris, a lawyer with Cruickshank & Hemmingson in Lacombe, will be on site from Sunday, July 18 through July 22 to assist you with your Last Will & Testament and other legal documents. Why not exercise your free will and attend one of the financial presentations beginning Sunday, July 18 through Thursday, July 22 from 9:00 to 10:15 a.m. in the Assembly Room on the lower level of the Lodge. Please sign up at the Administration Office.
